SCIENCE IN OBERON

More than you imagine

Saturday 15 August 2026

Malachi Gilmore Hall, Oberon

EXHIBITS
10:00 am – 12:30 pm

PRESENTATIONS
12:30 pm – 4:00 pm

FREE ADMISSION
Bookings via Humantix

LUNCH AVAILABLE
from 12:00 pm
Soup and bread roll – $10

PRESENTATIONS

13:05 Dr Ana Gracanin
Greater gliders: ecology and conservation

13:35 Jackson Wilburn Wilkes
The effects of climate change on platypus populations in the Fish and Duckmaloi Rivers near Oberon

14:00 Malan Bothma
The effects of wind farms on Australian bird species – what we know and what we don't know

14:50 Alan Sheehan
Eco-acoustics for biodiversity assessment

15:10 Dr Anne Musser
Biodiversity at Jenolan Karst Conservation Reserve, with a special look at platypus research local biodiversity, conservation science, ecology, citizen science and environmental research from leading scientists and researchers.

Discover

SCAN TO BOOK

PRESENTED BY OCSN
Oberon Citizen Science Network

SUPPORTED BY
NSW GOVERNMENT
An Australian Government Initiative
Inspiring AUSTRALIA
OBERON COUNCIL